THE NATIONAL WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY ACT 2011 COMMENCED 1 JANUARY 2012

DO YOU COMPLY WITH THESE NEW LAWS?

ARE YOU THE OWNER, DIRECTOR OR MANAGER OF A BUSINESS?

The new Work Health and Safety Act 2011 describes you as a PCBU – Person Conducting Business or Undertaking.

DO YOU KNOW THAT YOU HAVE A PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY TO COMPLY WITH THESE NEW LAWS?

The PCBU has the primary duty of care to provide legal compliance and workplace safety.

PENALTIES FOR NON-COMPLIANCE ARE SEVERE

Reckless conduct $3,000,000 for a body corporate and $600,000 or 5 years imprisonment (or both) for a PCBU or Officer.

Failure to comply $300,000 for a PCBU or officer, $150,000 for an individual.

WE OFFER YOU A RISK MANAGEMENT SOLUTION

- We can assist you with legal compliance and conduct a professional safety inspection and produce a hazards identification report tailored to your workplace.
- WorkCover announced transitional periods up to one year to enable PCBU's to comply with these new laws. Most of these transitional periods were for 12 months, and ended 31 December 2012.
- Contact us today 9548 1825, a brief interview will put your mind at ease.
